Cuba Gives Spy 'Proof' To Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 12

(AP) — Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa said tonight he came to Mexico to present "indisputable proof of espionage activities carried out against Cuba and Mexico by Humberto Carrillo Colon," a diplomat recently recalled from Mexico's embassy in Havana.

Roa met for two hours with President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz and issued a statement after the meeting.

"During the conversation," Roa said "I had the opportunity of presenting to President Diaz Ordaz a part of the indisputable proofs that our government possesses concerning the espionage activities carried out against Cuba and Mexico by Humberto Carrillo Colon as an agent of the CIA, U.S. Central Intelligence Agency."

Cuba first made the allegation a week ago and demanded that Carrillo Colon be turned over to Cuban courts for trial. But Mexico refused and recalled him from Havana.

Roa boarded a plane for home after his statement was released.

U.S. Grants Asylum To Cuban Defector

Associated Press

The State Department said yesterday a Geneva-based Cuban diplomat who defected recently has been granted asylum in the United States.

A spokesman said the defector, Augustin Sanchez-Gonzalez, attached to the Cuban mission to international organizations in Geneva, has arrived in the United States.

He gave no further details. Sanchez-Gonzalez was reported missing from his post Aug. 23 after he failed to return to his apartment five days earlier. He has not been seen since then.

Sanchez-Gonzalez returned to Geneva from a Cuban vacation just a few days before his disappearance.
